Message from the PRESIDENT

AMDG

Dear Friends,

The Jesuit Experience. More than an Education. The “Experience” and the “More Than” are closely related to Br. Jim Boynton’s article in this issue of Highlights, in which he profiles our alumni who are Jesuits in formation.

The connection is formation. When the townspeople of Messina came to Ignatius Loyola in 1548, they asked if he would start a school for their young men. They told Ignatius that they wanted their young men to be formed in the same way that the Society of Jesus formed its priests and brothers.

And so, for 470 years now, the Society of Jesus has been forming young men. The foundation of that formation is based on how Jesuits themselves are formed. The cornerstone of the foundation is twofold: A relationship with the Lord as companion and friend, and following him in service of the Kingdom.

Times and cultures change and shift. Over its 141-year history, U of D Jesuit has adapted the formation of young men to fit the signs of the times. Our culture today is more godless. Affiliation with and participation in traditional expressions of Christian faith has declined. For these reasons, the formation of young men in our school must be as strong as ever.

Here are a few examples of how we continue to adapt to the times. We revised our theology curriculum to include more Jesuit and Ignatian studies and exposure to Jesuit spirituality. To that point, Br. Boynton and I teach a class in Ignatian Prayer and Spirituality. This year we introduced a chaplaincy program in athletics and in band. A student on the team is the chaplain, leading the team in a prayer service before games, and in prayer before practices. Br. Boynton trains the chaplains, observes them, and gives them feedback. We are exploring how Eucharist and liturgies might be introduced into smaller group settings. While we would continue to have our all school Masses, these smaller groups pose the possibility of more intimacy and participation.

The Jesuit Experience. More than an Education. We are forming Men for Others, to the greater glory of God.

With my prayers,

THEODORE G. MUNZ, S.J.

President

MISSION STATEMENT

University of Detroit Jesuit High School and Academy is committed to providing the highest quality of Jesuit college preparatory education to young men in southeast Michigan. U of D Jesuit, in collaboration with parents, will challenge its students to go beyond academic excellence, to be reflective, to be committed to the service of personal faith and the promotion of justice: to be “Men for Others.”

DEVELOPMENT

AMDG

Cub faithful,

Another year at 8400 S. Cambridge has begun and The High is bursting at the seams with 934 young men walking the halls. Our students continue to amaze, whether it is in the classroom or out in the community, they live out our mission each day. Thank you for providing the resources we need to help make the Jesuit experience possible for our Cubs.

Inside this issue, you will learn the story of five alumni who have been called to serve God and others by entering the Society of Jesus. You will read about the newest members of our faculty and staff. Lastly, our President's Report recognizes many of you who continue to be generous to the school. Thank you for all that you do for The High!

If you would like to know how you can help support our Cubs, please contact me at david.gumbel@uofdjesuit.org or at 313-927-2347.

Who's New At The High? - Newest Faculty & Staff

Sean Barry, S.J.

Basic Algebra, Analytical Math, and Theology

Sean Barry, S.J. is a Jesuit in formation who has been missioned to work at U of D Jesuit in the math and theology departments. He grew up in Chicago where he developed a passionate loyalty to its sports teams (White Sox not Cubs.) He attended Loyola University Chicago where he graduated in 2013 with a Bachelor of Science in math and entered the Jesuits the August after graduating. During his second year in the novitiate, Sean student-taught part-time at Creighton Prep in Omaha, Nebraska for a semester. He took First Vows in August 2015 and then attended St. Louis University where he received a Master of Arts in math earlier this year. While in St. Louis, he also served as a spiritual director and led a Christian Life Community group. Though naturally more reserved, Sean takes great joy in friendships and spending time with people. Some of his other hobbies include running, writing, and reading fiction. He is excited for the chance to come and serve at U of D Jesuit and looks forward to integrating into the school community and in the classroom.

Jim Boynton, S.J.

Campus Ministry and Development

We are happy to welcome back Brother Jim Boynton, S.J. for his third return to The High. In some ways, we feel he has never left. Brother Boynton was raised in St. Ignace Michigan, and after joining the Jesuits in 1987 he taught in India, Nepal, Cleveland, Detroit and Mexico. He has also served as vocations director for the Jesuits, ran the summer programs for St. Anne Catholic Church on Mackinac Island, and has led many medical brigades for International Samaritan. Br. Jim was stationed in Haiti, where he was principal of a school until the earthquake of January 2010, when he became involved in medical relief and reconstruction. Before returning to U of D Jesuit, he has been serving as a Vocations Director for the Midwest Province of Society of Jesus.

Mary Catherine Costello

Assistant Director of Campus Ministry

Mary Catherine is thrilled to return to the city of Detroit after 13 years of school, travel and work. After graduating from Mercy High School in 2004, she studied Spanish and Theology at John Carroll University in Cleveland, Ohio. After much discernment, she decided to dedicate a year of her life to faith, service, and social justice in Chicago teaching Spanish at an all-girl Catholic High School in south Chicago. After Chicago, she studied counseling at the University of Dayton where she managed undergraduate residence halls for her graduate assistantship. Her interest in mental health drove her back to Cleveland where she worked at Case Western University in psychiatry researching mood disorders. Missing the Catholic school community, she next took a job in the counseling department at St. Ignatius High School in Cleveland. The administration saw her talents for ministry after 2 years in the counseling department and she switched to the Campus Ministry department. She directed numerous Kairos retreats, freshmen/sophomore retreats, domestic and international mission trips, and formed a club, Ignatians for Peace and Justice, along with teaching a Psychology class for upperclassmen. After six years at St. Ignatius High School, she decided to leave and return home to Detroit and accept the position as Assistant Director of Campus Ministry at "The High". Mary Catherine's older brother Rob is a 1998 graduate.

Lori Hazen

English

Lori has been an educator at Shrine Catholic Grade School in Royal Oak for 18 years. Her teaching position for the past 10 years has been middle school Reading and English. In addition to teaching those subjects, Lori has chaired the middle school Declamation Committee, an exciting public-speaking competition similar to forensics. She hopes to incorporate the importance of public speaking into her Jesuit Academy English curriculum.

Lori is married and the mother of two busy, wonderful teenagers. The Hazen family spends most of their summer at their family cottage on Lake Huron. Lori enjoys volunteering for the South Oakland Warming Shelter in the winter months and appreciates the Jesuit commitment to service. She is thrilled to be a part of the U of D Jesuit community and looks forward to a great year!

Newest Faculty & Staff

Michael Hickey

Theology

Mike returns to the University of Detroit Jesuit High School and Academy after teaching at Brother Rice High School the past 11 years. His first stint at U of D Jesuit was from 1996-2007. He was the Executive Director of Camp Sancta Maria in Gaylord, Michigan from 1991-2013. He is currently the Director of Our Lady of the Fields Camp and Retreat Center in Brighton, Michigan. Mike and his wife Mary have five children: Jeremy, Maria, Jacob, Bryan and Michelle.

Barbara Koster Rigg

Director of Service in the Office of Faith & Service

Barb Koster Rigg comes to the position of Director of Service via a fairly non-traditional route. She is a native Detroit and product of 12 years of Catholic education, having attended Our Lady of Good Counsel on the east side and Dominican High School, followed by a degree from Wayne State University. As a teen, Barb planned to become a teacher but was diverted by a lengthy career in television journalism with stints at the ABC and NBC stations locally, and Good Morning America and 20/20 nationally. While living in New York City, she began—but did not complete her degree in education. However, through her student teaching assignment, she met Bill Rigg, whom she married in 1994. Their son Steve, U of D Jesuit Class of 2017, was born in NYC.

Once back in Michigan, Barb served as a media consultant and volunteer for a number of charities and projects. Her favorite is St. Vincent de Paul, where she has been involved since high school as a camp counselor, a camp committee member, and energy assistance coordinator. She currently serves as the president of her St. Vincent de Paul conference at St. Clare of Montefalco Catholic Church.

Barb has recently worked part-time at U of D Jesuit in the Auction office. She is now putting her talents and passion for service to use in her new position as Director of Service in the Office of Faith & Service.

Augustus (Gus) Schaefer

Biology

Gus attended Indiana University where he majored in geology. During his time at IU he was a teaching assistant for several classes, including a seven-week field geology course in southwest Montana. In 2016, he graduated with a Master of Science in Geology and began a career in environmental consulting. After two years as a consultant, he decided to pursue a more fulfilling career and enrolled in the teacher certification program at Schoolcraft College. As a first year high school teacher, Gus hopes to use his passion for science and experience as a professional to excite students and empower them to seek careers in science. Gus and his wife, Paige, have been married for two years. They live in Plymouth and are members of St. Kenneth's Catholic Church. In their spare time, they enjoy camping, gardening, biking, and anything outdoors.

Matthew Lewis

Head Varsity Football Coach and Physical Education

Matt Lewis is our new head varsity football coach and Academy PE teacher. He returns to the Detroit Catholic schools after a two-year hiatus. Matt spent the previous two years as a teacher and assistant coach at Saline High School in Saline, Michigan. Prior to arriving at Saline, he coached football at Warren De La Salle from 2009-2016. His tenure there included six playoff appearances, four MHSAA District championships, two MHSAA Regional Championships, a Detroit CHSL Central Division Championship in 2015 and a MHSAA Division 2 State Championship in 2014.

Matt is a graduate of Warren De La Salle High School. He earned his Bachelor of Science in Physical Education from the University of Michigan. He also served as a student assistant coach for the Wolverines, working primarily with defensive backs and serving as an academic learning coordinator. Matt states, "The opportunity to join U of D's tradition and be part of the Jesuit experience is truly a dream come true. I look forward to working together to build a program that will make the school and alumni proud both on and off the field."

Newest Faculty & Staff

Lisa Neale
College Counselor

Lisa joins U of D Jesuit as the College Counselor. Lisa grew up in Livonia and lives in West Bloomfield. Lisa brings with her, ten years of school counseling experience, including three years as a College Counselor. She developed the College Counseling Program at Divine Child High School where she worked for eight years as the Counseling Department Head. Lisa loves to-do lists and keeping busy. She is a U of M graduate, but is married to a Spartan, so she has love for both schools, except for that one day in October every year.

Elizabeth Ward

Algebra I and Algebra II/Trigonometry

Elizabeth Ward comes to U of D Jesuit with 14 years of experience teaching secondary Mathematics. She grew up in Farmington Hills and attended Purdue University for undergrad, majoring in Business Management and Marketing. Her calling for teaching youth came a few years later and she attended Wayne State University and graduated from their MAT program with concentrations in Mathematics and English. She comes to us from Rochester Adams High School where she has taught almost all levels of their curriculum. Elizabeth resides in Ferndale with her husband, Chris, and their nine-year-old son, Henry, who is a fourth grader at Shrine Grade School. She is involved with her church's youth group and participates in local mission work throughout the year. Elizabeth is a fan of Big Ten football and basketball and always cheers for her Boilers—while she explains the rules to her novice husband who is British and has no clue what is going on. She is an avid reader and spends her vacations scuba diving and skiing, in between reading good books. Elizabeth is excited for the school year and is most looking forward to working with new colleagues learning the ropes and becoming a part of the U of D Jesuit family

Emanuel Werner, S.J.
Psychology, Sociology, and School Counselor

Emanuel Werner, S.J. is a Jesuit in formation who has been missioned to work at U of D Jesuit in both the school counseling and social studies departments—teaching Psychology & Sociology and serving as a school counselor. Emanuel hails from Columbus, Ohio (Go Bucks!) He is a UC Bearcat, a Dayton Flyer, and a Fordham Ram. Emanuel has a professional background in Strength and Conditioning, School Counseling and Clinical Counseling. His aim to help and form the entire person: body, mind, and soul. Emanuel tells us, "I am blessed to be a Jesuit for five years and am grateful for the opportunity to grow as a religious in service as a Jesuit regent at such a fine institution." He enjoys playing golf, tennis, hockey and other sports for recreation. Emanuel's prayer is that Almighty God will give us every grace to educate well and form the promising youth of U of D Jesuit into true men for others.

Who's New At The High? - Alumni Volunteer Corps

The Alumni Volunteer Program, founded in 1994, provides an opportunity for alumni to use their talents and energies to benefit the U of D Jesuit Community on a daily basis. The AVC program offers a unique opportunity to influence students in many different ways and offers young alumni the chance to be "Men for Others." The AVC's benefit from living as a community in a school-owned house located adjacent to campus, free utilities, a small living stipend, professional career advice, a wide range of work experience, the challenge to serve others and the chance to develop spiritually.

Who's New At The High? - Alumni Volunteer Corps

We asked our AVCs a variety of questions. Here are some of their answers:

What made you want to be an AVC?

Cassar: I entered the program two years later than a traditional AVC. Therefore, I have two years of professional work experience. I wanted to use the lessons I learned in my career to help other students succeed with theirs.

Guest: I always looked up to the AVCs when I was a student. This is a great opportunity to grow as an educator as well as help U of D in the process.

Hansknecht: The AVC's that I knew as a student we're always men who I looked up to and aspired to be. I hope that I will be that role model for the next generation of U of D gentlemen.

Kolpasky: When I was a student at U of D, I enjoyed how the AVCs impacted the school culture with their fresh eyes on teaching and college experiences. I hoped that I could impact the current students as the other AVC influenced my experience at UDJ. I also love being able to give back to the community that made me who I am today.

Lopus: As an educator, I wanted the extra experience. I hope that I will be able to walk away from the AVC role with a job offering.

Mularoni: Service to others pervades every part of the U of D community and I wanted to re-immersify myself in this service community. Additionally, AVCs gain a unique experience as teachers, mentors, and coaches. I know that the skills I learn and the connections I make this year will be invaluable for me as I move on to graduate school and professional life.

Wautelet: I wanted to give back to the school that I love so much, and that molded me into the man I am today.

Benson: I wanted to do a year of volunteer service, and I thought this was the best place to do it.

Describe your transition from student to faculty.

Comment: At first it was odd being colleagues with teachers whose classes I had taken as a student, but everyone was super-welcoming and helpful and it made the transition smooth.

Kolpasky: The transition has not been too difficult. I have tutored before but teaching and controlling a full classroom has been a challenge. However, seeing the "Ah-ha!" moment on the students face makes it all worth it in the end.

Lopus: I get to see my past teachers in a new light as we talk as peers and equals, sharing stories and experiences that I never would have heard as a student.

Mularoni: The transition has been interesting to navigate so far. As a student, I chose to be involved in sports, cocurriculars, and community service. Now, I find myself busy with the same activities. Although much has changed, U of D remains the same place that I came to love as a student. I consider myself lucky to continue to be mentored by the same passionate, committed professionals who guided me when I was a student.

Wautelet: It's hard because you never really know how much goes on behind the scenes until you work here. It's a lot of hours that we are devoting not just to our classes and tutoring, but also to sports and clubs. We are all doing our best to help make an impact on the school and the students, but it is definitely a significant change from college life.

Who's New At The High? - Alumni Volunteer Corps

What subjects/programs are you working with at UDJ?

Cassar: Microbiology and Chemistry. , Assistant Coach, JV Tennis, Moderator, Outdoors Club.

Comment: Physics, Coach, Academy Soccer & Assistant Coach, Swimming.

Guest: Jesuit Academy, Assistant Coach, Academy Cross Country, Theater.

Hansknecht: Chemistry and Materials Science, After School Program, MAGIS Program.

Kolpasky: Conceptual Physics and AP Physics, Robotics: Shell Eco-marathon car project.

Lopus: English and History, Yearbook, Assistant Coach, JV Soccer.

Mularoni: World History, AP English, and Directed Study courses, Assistant Coach, Varsity Soccer.

Wautelet: Algebra 2 and Intro to Engineering, Assistant Coach, JV Soccer, Assistant Coach, Golf.

Benson: Freshman Biology and Junior/Senior Anatomy, Assistant Coach, Wrestling.

Have you given a JUG yet?

Benson: At least three JUGS. Some students think they are slick and act as if I was never a high school student who wanted to use my cell phone. Trust me I know the tricks. Most people don't stare at their feet/knees and start smiling unless they are on their cell phone.

Cassar: Very close, but not yet.

Comment: Not yet.

Guest: One warning JUG. Cellphone use on campus.

Hansknecht: One JUG. Eating lunch during homeroom.

Kolpasky: One JUG. Cellphone use during class.

Lopus: I've threatened one a couple of times, but haven't had to pull that trigger just yet.

Mularoni: Several JUGs. All rather mundane things like sleeping in class.

Wautelet: No JUGs yet. I only intend on doing so if someone is blatantly disrespectful to another student, a faculty member, or me.

Who's New At The High? - Alumni Volunteer Corps

What else would you like to say about the AVC program?

Guest: AVC life has been great. All of the AVCs have been a very social and close-knit group. From working with one another in crosswords daily to preparing for our next step of graduate school or reading books for content or pleasure, the AVCs have been hard at work making sure our time at U of D is beneficial for the school and for us.

Hansknecht: I would like to thank U of D for providing me with this opportunity to be a part of school life once again. It's a great honor to have the chance to come back and give back to the school after they have provided me with so much. I would also like to thank the UofD Mom's club for all they have done in supporting the AVC's both through their donations as well as the food that they graciously provide to us.

Kolpasky: I really enjoy seeing academics from the teaching perspective. I had no idea that so much effort went into teaching from behind the scenes. I really enjoy having an impact on the students' experience.

Lopus: I was nervous that the job would not live up to the hype that I was giving it, but I was pleasantly surprised to find out that the role is everything I wanted it to be! It's a great position that allows the AVCs to pass on some of what they've learned to the students and learn from the other faculty.

Mularoni: The AVC experience so far has been overwhelmingly positive. They keep us quite busy, but I can assure you that we are grateful for it. Dinners with the Jesuits and from the Mothers' club have been great. We even had fun chaperoning Homecoming!

Wautelet: If any moms are responsible for cooking for the ACV house on Cambridge sometime in the future. My favorite meal is Chicken Alfredo with Garlic Bread.

Benson: AVC life can be pretty fun, and I hope some students will enjoy having us around and want to come back and be AVCs themselves.

Student Experiences

IMMERSION DETROIT

Immersion Detroit is a week-long experience with a general theme of “service days and cultural nights.” Students spent the day serving local food pantries, food shelters, and outreach agencies. In the evenings, they explored the rich history and heritage of the city -- including the Solanus Casey Center, the Detroit Riverwalk, Belle Isle, Pewabic Tile, Mexicantown, Eastern Market, and the Motown Museum. Students and faculty stayed at Saint Andrews during the June 2018 trip.

Student Experiences

LABRE MINISTRY

Ignatian spirituality encourages us to translate our faith into working for justice, especially in areas where human dignity is lacking. The U of D Jesuit Labre Ministry is a true expression of that faith. Named after St. Joseph Labre, the patron saint of those without a home, the ministry serves the marginalized of Detroit. This unique student-run ministry is more than “feeding people on the streets,” it is recognizing that they are human beings and that someone cares for them. Every Tuesday, year round, students prepare food and beverage, and then walk through Detroit’s Greek Town and riverfront area to meet with people living on the streets. The students sit, talk, and listen to with those whom society has sadly forgotten. Because of these weekly visits, the boys have built relationships with many of the people they have met. Our students have learned the reality of people’s situation does not take away from their human dignity or need to relate to others, and our shared humanity can truly unite us.

July 16, 2018

The Third Annual U of D Jesuit Invitational took place on July 16, 2018 at the Country Club of Detroit. Since 2016, the demand for this event has grown a great deal. This year, we sold out slots in just under 24-hours. Through sponsorships and eagerness to create a social impact, decades of Cubs and friends of U of D Jesuit came together for a worthy and charitable cause. Thank you to all who were involved and to all who supported our efforts to bring this group of people together for the benefit of the U of D Jesuit Scholarship Program, the U of D Jesuit community and our constituents. If you are interested in sponsoring next year's event, please contact Jack Donnelly '99 for more information. The event is scheduled for July 15, 2019.

From "The High" to University President – Times Four

What high school in the country today can claim four of its graduates went on to serve as presidents of an institution of higher education? Furthermore, what are the odds all four served as presidents at the same university? Adding to those probabilities, what are the chances all four graduates became Jesuits? A recent search of the U of D Jesuit and the UDM Archives and Collections revealed this interesting anomaly.

First, a little history refresher. U of D High School, originally known as Detroit College, was founded in 1877. The institution included collegiate and high school classes under one roof. This system continued until 1928, when the high school was academically separated from the collegiate division. It was not until 1947 that the administration and financial connections between the high school and college were divided into two distinct institutions. In 1990, the college became known as U of D Mercy.

Celestine J. Steiner 1917

Celestine J. Steiner 1949

The High's records show Celestine J. Steiner as a graduate in the class of 1917. He went on to the college division of U of D, where he also played football. Steiner later became a Jesuit before coming back as president of the college division of U of D from 1949 through 1960.

William J. Millor 1918

William J. Millor 1944

William J. Millor graduated from U of D High School in 1918 and later received his diploma from the college at U of D in 1923. Millor, too, was called into a vocation with the Society of Jesus. He was named president of the college at U of D in 1944, a position he held until 1949.

Laurence V. Britt 1929

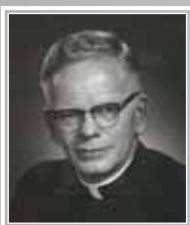

Laurence V. Britt 1960

Laurence V. Britt was a member of the 1929 U of D High School graduating class. He also attended U of D as a college student, graduating in 1933. Like his two predecessors of The High, he became a Jesuit. Britt went on to serve as president of what is now U of D Mercy from 1960 to 1966.

Malcolm Carron 1935

Malcolm Carron 1935

Malcolm Carron graduated from The High in 1935, and after earning his bachelors degree in philosophy from U of D in 1939, he joined the Jesuits. In 1966, Carron became the college's 17th president. Fr. Carron, S.J. later became president of U of D Jesuit High School from 1981 through 1992. His work did not stop there. In 1993 "At the youthful age of 76, Fr. Carron was invited to curtail his retirement to help start Loyola Academy (now Loyola High School)," explained former Loyola president David Mastrangelo, S.J. "True to form, he responded willingly and cheerfully. He brought to Loyola High School the same high level of commitment in the city he shared with the University and U of D Jesuit."

While U of D Jesuit High School alumni have included famous authors, politicians, business leaders, and more, we can now add "university presidents who were Jesuits" to that list – all produced through an education at The High.

Photos from the U of D Jesuit Archives and UDM Archives and Special Collections

By: Brother Jim Boynton, S.J.

S.J. was the first graduate to become a Jesuit. In the years since 1877, there are 70 alumni who have either spent their lives, or are presently serving, in the Society of Jesus. Currently, there are five Scholastics (Jesuits in training for the priesthood) who first met Jesuits during their time at 8400 South Cambridge. Hopefully, their inspiration came from some of the Jesuits they encountered at The High, but also from the dedicated lay faculty and staff who carry our mission forward. In today's world, it is rare to have so many young alumni from one school in Jesuit formation, and it speaks well of our common mission here at U of D Jesuit.

When Joshua Peters, S.J., '97 entered the Jesuit novitiate in 2009, it had been twenty years since a U of D Jesuit graduate had joined the Society of Jesus. Prior to his entrance, Joshua was working at U of D Jesuit in Campus Ministry. As a student, most would not have predicted his future vocation, even though he was active in the Student Pastoral Team and had been a Kairos leader. More often, he could be found on the soccer and lacrosse fields, in the weight room, or the Student Senate office. He was highly influenced by Mr. Rick Clancy's ('74) English class, and it was there he first learned to express himself freely. Mr. Derek Lopez moderated the seventh-grade homeroom where Joshua was a big brother (upperclassmen who help in homerooms), and he too, played a major role in Joshua's education. One of the first times Joshua witnessed blatant racism was on a family vacation during spring break. Mr. Lopez, an African American teacher, helped Joshua understand and process the reality of our world. Joshua's study and ministry as a Jesuit has been highly influenced by the cultural mix and spiritual foundation he experienced in high school. He has since spent time in Mexico, worked at the Pine Ridge Lakota Reservation in South Dakota, and taught three years in West Chicago at Christ the King Jesuit College Prep, a predominantly African-American school. He is currently studying for two master's degrees in theology, one at Santa Clara University as a prerequisite for ordination, but the other, at Xavier University of Louisiana in Black Catholic Studies, may hold his interest more. If he stays on track, Joshua will be ordained a Jesuit priest in 2020.

Joshua Peters, S.J., '97

Bobby Karle, S.J. '03 was no stranger to U of D Jesuit before becoming a student. He had three cousins who attended the school and it seemed a natural fit. As a student, he was involved in the Student Senate and the Pastoral Team, but he had a real passion for hockey. His best memories are of hockey tournaments in northern Michigan, as well as the great talent show of 1999. He and fellow classmate, Mark DeFour, performed the song "Farmhouse" by Phish – an act that brought the house down. His Theology class with Fr. Tom Ryan, S.J. was a big influence, and for the first time, he was able to think and feel on a deeper level, and this started a personal relationship with God. After graduating from DePaul University, Bobby spent two years in Belize with the Jesuit Volunteer Corps and from there he came back to U of D Jesuit to work in Campus Ministry. A fellow teacher and former classmate, Andy Barringer '03, introduced him to yoga and since that time, yoga has played a prominent role in Bobby's life. Through his Ignatian Yoga program he has become an internationally known retreat director.

Feature Story - Alumni Jesuits

For the past several years, Bobby was a teacher at Brebeuf Jesuit High School in Indianapolis, but has recently been assigned to Santa Clara University where he is doing his last studies before ordination. When not in the classroom, he can still be found enjoying jam band music, riding his bike and, of course, instructing yoga.

Dan Dixon, S.J. '06

Dan Dixon, S.J. '06 and Matt Ippel, S.J. '09, are both Jesuit scholastics in regency, which is the time of Jesuit formation between philosophy studies and formal study of theology. If you had any "Mr. S.J.'s" during your time at U of D Jesuit, they too were "regents." As a student, Dan was involved with the Student Senate, the golf team, the spring musical, and Cub News. He was extremely moved by his biochemistry teacher, Mr. Tom Coyne '62. While talented in the classroom as a teacher, it was Mr. Coyne's daily care for his sister, Sharon, that inspired Dan. Sharon had special needs, and she often accompanied Tom to school, where she was a regular presence in his classroom. Later, after attending Notre Dame, Dan joined the

Matt Ippel, S.J. '09

Society of Jesus in 2012, and is currently teaching at St. Ignatius High School in Cleveland, Ohio. Matt Ippel was also an active Cub, and serving as his class president, Matt took part in every service opportunity he could. A service trip to Nicaragua affected him greatly and set the trajectory of his life. Even though he went on to Georgetown University to study International Affairs, his most influential teachers were from the U of D Jesuit Science Department, Mrs. Claudia Foerg and Mrs. Priscilla Oshikiri. Matt recently finished his philosophy studies in Peru and will be moving to East Africa this fall to begin work with the Jesuit Refugee Services.

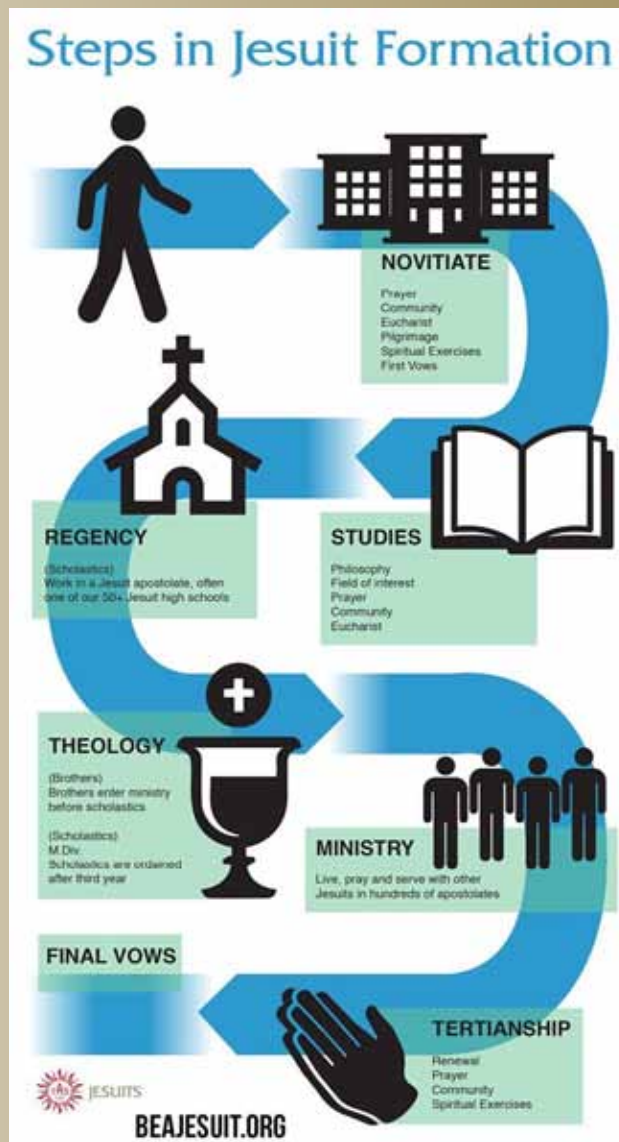

Alex Hale '14

The most recent Cub to join the Jesuits is Alex Hale '14. As a student, he was active in the Cub News, the cross-country team, the choir, Student Senate and the theatre program. Fr. Cyril Pinchak, S.J. was a regent at the time and had an influence on Alex as his cross-country coach. He was also greatly affected by Mrs. Kim Redigan's commitment to social justice and peace, as well as Dr. Joe Gall's care for the whole person on retreats. Upon graduation from Xavier University in Cincinnati, Alex joined the 2018 class of the Midwest Jesuit novitiate. His journey with the Society of Jesus is just beginning.

Matthew 7:16 says, "By their fruits you will know them", and in the course of our 141 years, U of D Jesuit has produced outstanding alumni on every level. We are proud of our men who have gone on to be great husbands and fathers, served in the military or the professional world, and made a positive impact on others, known or unknown. Yet, the fact that some men take on the Jesuit tradition as a way of life says we are doing something right. The next man to join the Jesuits may be walking our halls right now... or perhaps even reading this article.

Ignatian Educator: Kathleen Curran

What is an Ignatian Educator?

An Ignatian Educator serves as a guide with and for students on their formational journeys in a Jesuit school. In collaboration with colleagues, the Ignatian Educator engages in ongoing personal, professional and religious development in order to sustain a vibrant community committed to the mission of Jesuit education.

Ms. Kathleen Curran teaches World History and Geography at U of D Jesuit. She grew up in Birmingham, Michigan. Her father, brother, grandfather, great uncle, uncles, and cousins attended U of D Jesuit. Being surrounded by so many family members who attended The High, she knew well what it meant to be Jesuit educated. As U of D was not a possible option for her, she attended Marian High School, an all-girls Catholic school in Bloomfield, Michigan.

Eventually she was blessed with her own Jesuit education when she attended the College of the Holy Cross in Worcester, Massachusetts. “My parents have always had a deep love and respect for the Jesuits. When I went to Holy Cross, I really understood why,” said Curran. She considers her Jesuit education to be one of her greatest blessings in life. Curran went on to get a law degree from another Jesuit school, University of Detroit Mercy, and then practiced commercial real estate for five years.

In 2001, Ms. Curran’s life changed dramatically when she traveled to Bolivia. “I became involved with orphanages there and ended-up moving to Bolivia and staying for more than ten years. I taught in Bolivian schools and started a non-profit in Bolivia that provides educational opportunities for Bolivian youth,” explained Curran. The program she founded is called Keep the Faith Bolivia. The name of the mission was inspired by her dad who, when times were tough, would say, “Keep the faith, kid.”

However, Curran was well versed in the Jesuit term “striving for the Magis.” She knew she had to do more. She felt it was important to enhance her ability to be an effective teacher, so she went back to school and obtained a master’s degree in education from Northwestern University.

Ignatian Educator: Kathleen Curran

Curran has been teaching at U of D Jesuit for five years. When asked what she likes best about the school, Curran described it this way, "I love working at a place where my soul is in my work. The mission at U of D resonates with my vocation to be the best that I can be and help others do the same. I believe that the rigorous, holistic and Christ-centered Jesuit education that U of D offers is outstanding. I regard it as unique privilege to interact with my students and colleagues on a daily basis as we all work to achieve the Magis."

Ms. Curran helps students to be conscious of their well-rounded growth as men for others by offering this advice, "Know that the investment and sacrifices that you make to attend U of D will reap countless blessings in the future for your entire family."

Curran continues her social justice mission in Bolivia and uses many of the program's stories as teaching tools for her students at U of D Jesuit. She explains to her students that by providing love and education, the Bolivia mission gives kids a real chance to become all that God created them to be. She travels to Bolivia approximately three times a year, and with the help of technology, is able to speak to the kids there just about every day. "Our mission home in Bolivia reflects my Jesuit education in so many ways. The mission motto is 'be a man or woman for others' and that saying appears in a large mural as you enter the mission home. One of the greatest joys of my life has been witnessing over and over how love and education absolutely helps a child break out of poverty and forever. Kids who grew up in extreme poverty are now thriving lawyers, doctors, teachers, and business persons – and all are giving back to their families by helping another sibling get an education," said Curran. The program has recently been expanded to include students at the Jesuit sponsored school, St. Aloysius Gonzaga, in Nairobi, Kenya. A Jesuit priest from that school recently spoke to Ms. Curran's class at The High.

Through her travels, Ms. Curran has been able to enrich her courses at U of D Jesuit in many ways. She summed it up best by saying, "The world is my other classroom and I learn so much every time I visit a new place. Interacting with different cultures and places always causes me to marvel at all the ways that God manifests his beauty throughout humanity. The diversity is always enriching, but what really inspires me is seeing how we are so much more alike than different regarding things that matter most like faith, hope and love."

The Arrupe Society

Supporting The Jesuit High School Experience in Detroit

Tom O'Keefe '64

Fr. Pedro Arrupe, S.J.

With a vision for the future of The High, Fr. Malcolm Carron, S.J. '35 established the Arrupe Society in 1985. He wanted to be sure that U of D Jesuit would continue to graduate Cubs who would be well-prepared as leaders: Men for Others who would serve their families, churches and communities. Continuing Fr. Carron's work, our benefactors who have included U of D Jesuit in their will or estate plan have similarly laid the foundation for our future.

This year, twelve benefactors have joined the Arrupe Society, bringing total membership to 239. Over the years, Arrupe Society members have given more than $14,500,000 to support the school. Some have named The High as the beneficiary of their IRAs. Others have made provisions in their wills to establish a named perpetual scholarship. While the details of their legacy gifts differ, these alumni and friends share the same generous sentiment: to provide ongoing financial support so that future generations of Cubs will graduate with a well-rounded perspective, a sense of humility and justice and an entire world of possibilities ahead of them.

We are grateful to the following benefactors who have joined the Arrupe Society between July 2017 and June 2018. Your support is critical to the continued success of our school.

Sponsoring A Circle of Care Scholarship

Will Change Their Future and Yours Too!

How can I change a young man's future?

How can I honor a loved one with a scholarship at The High?

The answer to these questions is to become a Circle of Care Scholarship sponsor. A sponsor makes a special commitment to fund a U of D Jesuit education. There are two possible Circle of Care Scholarship opportunities, "Annual" and "Endowed".

The Annual Circle of Care Scholarship Program has these features:

- The sponsor is specifically assigned to the student during his four-years here. Sponsors will have the opportunity to meet the student and parents at the Annual Prayer Service and Dinner, usually held in early October. Also, there is communication three times during the year between the student and the sponsor.
- This is a sponsor-named scholarship. You may name the scholarship for yourself, or for another person(s) you wish to honor.
- The sponsor is matched with a student selected by the School's Financial Aid Committee. You may provide general preferences for your assigned student (e.g. resides in the city of Detroit). We will do our best to accommodate your preference. Selected students must meet and maintain certain academic, financial, and discipline eligibility standards.
- Annual scholarships are asked to commit to a four-year pledge of $13,100 per year (a total of $52,400 over the four years). A four-year pledge ensures that the student will have tuition assistance during his years at The High. The tuition for the 2018-19 school year is $13,100.

Several benefactors have taken an extra step and have endowed their Circle of Care Scholarship gift. The endowed gift allows them to link their legacy with that of U of D Jesuit in the form of a named scholarship. Their gift will fund in perpetuity the tuition for a student at The High. All the features of the Annual Circle of Care Scholarship also apply to the Endowed Circle of Care Scholarship. For the upcoming academic year, a fully Endowed Circle of Care Scholarship is a gift of $250,000. The gift may be paid over a period of five years.

If you are interested in hearing more about the Circle of Care Scholarship Program, please contact David Gumbel at (313) 927-2347 or at david.gumbel@uofdjesuit.org.

President's Report

Fiscal Year July 1, 2017 – June 30, 2018

U of D Jesuit thanks its generous benefactors

A Note from the President

Dear U of D Jesuit Community,

As President of U of D Jesuit, I am delighted to acknowledge the many wonderful benefactors whose names appear on the following pages. I am thankful for the overwhelming support which this school receives. I also realize there are many individuals who support the school in many ways through their volunteer efforts. We are a stronger institution because of the good will of so many.

The Jesuit Experience. More Than an Education. Thank you for being part of it.

With my prayers,

Theodore G. Munz, S.J.
President

2018 Grand Reunion Weekend

On June 1-2, 2018, The High welcomed back our reunion classes ending in "2" and "7." Cubs from various classes got together for a great weekend that started with the Alumni Golf Outing Friday morning for a casual good time on the links. Friday Stag Night kicked up on June 1st and we had a great turnout, over 200 Cubs came back to school and reminisced on their time here, while providing a juxtaposition of memories to the current student tour guides. Friday night was a casual atmosphere that filled the room with stories of old and questions about the future.

Saturday Night's Mass & Dinner welcomed alumni and their spouses and guests. We celebrated the 50th reunion of the Class of 1968 in Curley Lobby, which was a treat for all to see.

On May 31st and June 1st of 2019, we will welcome alumni from the classes of 1949, 1954, 1959, 1964, 1969, 1974, 1979, 1984, 1989, 1994, 1999, 2004 and 2009! Every year, we strive to make the Grand Reunion Weekend an experience to remember. Next year's events will take place on May 31st and June 1st. Our golf venue is to be determined.

If you're interested in serving on our golf committee or reunion committee, please contact the alumni office.

January 8, 2014. Army veteran and former Ford Motor Company labor negotiator, passed away on January 8. He was 97 years old. Scallen, born September 17, 1916, was of full Irish descent and known to all as "Jack". The oldest of six children, he raised his own family of six in Detroit with his wife and college sweetheart, the late Mary Jane (Schwarz) Scallen. His grandfather, Peter Scallen, was an engineer for the Michigan Central Railroad for 55 years, and his father, Judge John P. Scallen, was a Records Court judge for 36 years. Jack went on to earn degrees from the University of Detroit and the U of D School of Law. He enjoyed a 42-year career in labor relations at Ford Motor Company, during which time he developed long-standing respectful relationships with the union officials sitting on the other side of the bargaining table. Scallen was also a World War II veteran, having served with the U.S. Army Air Corps in Northern Africa and Italy. He had strong memories of being sent off to war with two of his brothers, departing from the Michigan Central Railroad Station. Scallen's name is registered with the Battle of Normandy Foundation in Normandy, France, designating him as one of the "courageous Americans whose sacrifice and commitment led to the liberation of the continent of Europe during World War II." Scallen had very fond memories of growing up in Detroit. As a sports fan, he enjoyed meeting Joe Louis and other local figures, and playing U of D high school varsity football with his brother Joseph and three other sets of brothers (Carrons, Cronins, and Crawleys) on the same team. During his retirement years, Scallen volunteered at numerous places including a local district court probation office, Gesu Church in Detroit, Mt. Carmel Hospital, and U of D high school. Conrad D. Chapman '51

Formerly Conrad Chapski. Age 85, of Farmington Hills, an attorney since 1958 and retired partner and co-founder of the renowned Michigan law firm of Powers Chapman, passed away peacefully Wednesday morning, August 15th, at the Fox Run Senior Community, Novi. He had been in failing health since May. Conrad was born in Detroit in 1933, and called Detroit home for his entire life. A product of the Jesuit education system, Con attended University of Detroit High School, University of Detroit College and University of Detroit College of Law, graduating from all three with high honors, and completing his J.D. (then known as an L.L.B.) in 1957. He had the opportunity, and a scholarship, to study at Oxford in England, but he chose to stay in Detroit. In 1953, he met Carol DeBash, whom he married in 1957. He was a devoted husband, father and grandfather, and he will be deeply missed by Carol, by his three children and their spouses, and by his 8 grandchildren. The oldest of his grandchildren, Stephanie, now a doctor, was just married to her new husband, Dr. Daniel DelGadillo, in a church ceremony on August 4, 2018, which Conrad was able to attend. Conrad loved the practice of law, and was a respected member of the Michigan Bar Association. Over his nearly 50 year career, he worked in the areas of corporate law, business planning and advising, tax law, partnership law and estate planning, and he donated much time each year to charitable causes, including, notably, serving as corporate counsel for Boys and Girls Clubs of Detroit, as it grew and became Boys and Girls Clubs of Southeastern Michigan. Over the years, he provided legal services and advice to countless family owned and closely-held corporations, both large and small. In his free time, Con was an avid golfer. He not only entertained clients on the golf course, but he also painstakingly taught his two sons the finer points of the game. Conrad is the beloved husband of nearly 62 years to Carol; devoted father of Dr. Stephen (Michelle) and Richard Chapman, and Dr. Suzanne (Douglas) Lutton; and cherished grandfather of Dr. Stephanie, Daniel, Catherine and Christine Chapman, Mark Rodkey, and Caitlin, Christina and Brian Lutton.

Bruce D. Maher '55

July 6, 2018 at his home in Wauwatosa, Wisconsin. He was 80. An athlete to his core, Maher showed a particular prowess on the field, marked by his grit and humility. Drafted in the 15th round of the National Football League in 1959, Maher spent eight seasons for the Lions (1960-1967) and two seasons for the Giants (1968-1969). He was named NFL team MVP not once, but twice: first for the Lions in 1965 and for the Giants in 1968. A two-sport All American athlete at University of Detroit, Maher was a fierce competitor on the football team, as well as a catcher for the baseball team. Maher was nominated and played in the 1960 College Football All-Star Game at Soldier Field in Chicago. More than an exceptional athlete, Maher built a family, of which he was the rock. A husband, father, brother, grandfather and friend, he is survived by his wife, Gerda Marie Maher, his six children: Sheila (Francis), John (Kelly), Sharon Lee, and Luke (Marie), Matthew (Elizabeth) and Jesalyn (Jared), and 13 grandchildren: Vincent, George, Laine, Kit, Samantha, Jack, Dylan (Becca), Elijah, Gracie, Morrison, Hendrika, Luella, Yves and his namesake, Bruce. A man of rare talent, Maher held a strong presence at the head of his family and co-founded the largest privately owned telecommunications company in Wisconsin in the early 1980s. Still competing through his seventies, Maher enjoyed golf and played in annual Gus Macker basketball tournaments with his sons. "Keep the Faith," was Maher's mantra and he kept it through a nearly 20-year battle with cancer. His last moments were spent alongside his family at his home in Wauwatosa, WI. They will remember him for his mental toughness, authenticity, kindness, sharp wit and generous nature. Bruce was the life of the party, in true form at the center of his living room, bent over a guitar, singing and dancing the Blues.

The largest in the city, it was a tribute to the school and particularly the Dads' Club, the group that made it a reality. In this photo two Jesuits are seen inspecting the new gym's floor in 1950.
